

Expeditor Nurses Call System

GENERAL

The Expeditor System is a patient flow management system that is used to facilitate better patient care by providing information to the professional staff. The system consists of light panels, switches, cable, electronics, and input/output devices that are used to report patient status. The lights can be used to summon assistance.

Refer to the OEM manual provided in the Appendix portion of this manual for specific operating and maintenance instructions.